2. Granting of Intellectual Property Rights

2.1 For the purposes of marketing and advertising in connection with the collaboration as specified under this Agreement, subject to written consent (including email) of a party Granting the Intellectual Property Rights ("Granting Party"), the Granting Party grants to the other Party (the "Using Party") a revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, royalty-free limited permission to use the Granting Party's trade names, trademarks, service marks, logos, domain names, elements, symbol, device, graphic, design, copyrighted works and other distinctive brand features (the "IP") in Thailand as notified by the Granting Party to the Using Party from time to time in writing (including via email). The Using Party shall submit a sample of each use to the Granting Party for its prior written approval from the Granting Party, without which any use, display, reproduction of, and/or any action with the Granting Party's IP on any material or in any other manner whatsoever shall be strictly prohibited.

2.2 No license over the Granting Party's IP is granted or implied by such grant of permission. The Granting Party reserves all rights not expressly granted, including the right to authorize or license the use of its IP to any third party. All use and any goodwill created by the Using Party's use of the Granting Party's IP shall insure solely to the benefit of the Granting Party, which shall own all IP and derivative rights created by the Using Party's use, if any. The Using Party shall not at any time remove, deface, disparage, obscure, dispute, or impugn the validity of the Granting Party's IP, or the Granting Party's sole right to use and control the use thereof, and will not in any way impair the Granting Party's rights thereto.

- 2.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Granting Party may, at its sole discretion, revoke the right granted herein to use the IP upon providing the Using Party with prior written notice (including via email) thereof and a reasonable period to cease such usage. The Using Party shall return or destroy any display of the IP on the Using Party's material within a period to be mutually agreed by the Parties. Notwithstanding such revocation shall be made only if it does not create any harm to the Using Party.

3. Rights and Obligations of Intellectual Property Usage

For the avoidance of doubt, the rights and obligations to use the IP of the Using Party are as follows:

- 3.1 The Partner shall adhere to the following terms and conditions of using the Company's IP under this Agreement:
- (a) Prior to using, publishing, or representing the Company's IP for the Partner's promotions and marketing programs in any manner, including but not limited to the Partner's social media accounts, storefront, pamphlets, or any documentary paper advertisements, whether in electronic or physical form, the Partner shall provide the Company with a written request and demonstration of the intended use of the Company's IP. The Company must provide written approval before any such use.
 - (b) The Partner agrees and warrants that there will be no utilization of the Company's IP on any package, product, or label in commerce.
 - (c) The Partner shall use the Company's trademark and service mark ("Logo") only in the same manner, stylization, version, or color, provided by the Company. In addition, the Partner shall not amend, adapt, revise, rearrange, add, remove, or take any actions to alter the Logo.
- 3.2 When entering the Event's premise ("Field Premises"), the Partner agrees not to use or represent its IP, brand colors, mascots, trade dress, symbols, or any other expressions that imply the Partner's brand in any manner and by any means, including but not limited to attaching it to products, signs, boards, clothing, or uniforms of the Partner's staff or key opinion leaders ("KOLs").
- 3.3 The Partner agrees not to host or conduct any other branding campaigns, with or without the intellectual property rights of third parties, within the Field Premises, unless approved by the Company in advance. This ensures that this Agreement remains the sole agreement governing the Partner's activities at the Event.
- 3.4 The Company shall have rights, but not obligation, to use, represent, and publish the Partner's IP on its channels, including but not limited to:
- (a) The Company's website
 - (b) The Company's electronic newsletters
 - (c) The Company's print ads
 - (d) All of the Company's PR material, festival collateral, and daily onsite newspaper

- (e) Social media channels (as to be designed by the Company) and
- (f) The Company's article called "Wonderpost" for the Partner
- (g) The Company's mobile application (Wonder App)
- (h) The Company's annual report (Wonder Report)

4. Content Management

4.1 The Partner acknowledges and agrees that it must obtain prior written approval from the Company before undertaking the following actions:

- (a) Creating or producing any photo, video, article, sound, footage, or any content ("Contents") within the Field Premises; and
- (b) Posting or publishing Content on the Partner's owned channels. In this circumstance, the Partner must submit the recorded Contents to the Company via electronic media transfer.

4.2 When creating or producing Content, the Partner must ensure that the Partner's staff, including designated photographers and videographers, adhere to the rules and regulations regarding media and camera usage as outlined in Wonderfruit's Terms and Conditions, Accredited Staff Wristbands obligations in Article 5 below, as well as applicable laws and regulations related to privacy, intellectual property infringement, drone licensing, etc. This is to respect the privacy and comfort of customers during shoots, avoid infringement of the IP of others, and obtain necessary permissions for Content creation.

4.3 The Partner acknowledges and agrees that, without prior written approval from the Company, the Partner shall not solicit participation in the Partner's Contents from the Company's personnel, employees, staff, artists, or collaborators.

4.4 The Partner is prohibited from directly approaching the Company's artists and collaborators to request their participation in the creation of Content or to perform specific actions for the camera. In cases where the Partner desires to request the participation of the Company's artists or collaborators, the Partner agrees to contact the Company to lead the request for Content participation of such artists and collaborators. The allowance for requesting participation depends on the Company's sole discretion.

4.5 The Partner may create Content featuring their staff and KOLs, or overall footage that does not specifically identify customers or audiences. In cases where the Partner desires to solicit the specific customers or audiences to participate in the Contents, or if customers or audiences voluntarily request to join in the creation of the Partner's Contents, the Partner must ensure to obtain their privacy consent as stated in Article 6 below.

4.6 The Partner must ensure that the operation and creation of Content, which includes KOLs' photo/video, is conducted under Wonderfruit's Terms and Conditions regarding media and camera usage.

4.7 The Partner agrees to immediately remove or modify any Content as requested by the Company if the Company later finds or determines that such Content does not comply with Wonderfruit's Terms and Conditions or any applicable laws and regulations.

- 4.8 The Partner must ensure that all materials, Content, and activities conducted under this Agreement will not infringe upon the intellectual property rights or any other rights of any third party.

5 Tickets and Accredited Staff Wristbands Obligation

- 5.1 In accordance with the Company's contribution as specified in Article 1.2, the Partner shall receive (i) Tickets and (ii) Accredited Staff Wristbands which are provided free of charge. The Partner and its staff are strictly prohibited from exchanging, selling, or giving such Tickets and Accredited Staff Wristbands to a third party in any manner. Any instance of Tickets or Accredited Staff Wristbands being exchanged, sold, or given will constitute a breach of this Agreement, subjecting the Partner to penalties. These penalties may include, but are not limited to, financial charges, removal of wristbands, and termination of this Agreement, without refund or compensation.
- 5.2 The Partner is responsible for ensuring the safekeeping of Accredited Staff Wristbands and must return them to the Company in the quantity provided in Article 1.2, upon the conclusion of the Event.
- 5.3 The Partner shall adhere to the ticket distribution protocol specified by the Company, ensuring that tickets are distributed only to authorized individuals and in accordance with agreed-upon terms. The Partner shall maintain accurate records of ticket distribution for accountability purposes. The Company reserves the right to audit these records at any time and may impose additional penalties for any discrepancies or unauthorized distribution.

6 Personal Data Protection

- 6.1 Both Parties agree to strictly comply with the Thai Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 (2019) ("PDPA") and shall process personal data obtained from the performance of this Agreement only to the extent necessary to perform their obligations under the Agreement. The Parties shall commit to protecting the personal data (as defined by the PDPA) and shall ensure that the privacy of all personal data shall be protected and administered in line with the PDPA.
- 6.2 The Partner agrees that it shall not collect, use, or process the personal data of third parties in the Field Premises, such as the Company's personnel and employees, customers, audiences, vendors, etc. ("Attendees"), without obtaining explicit, informed consent from the Attendees on a case-by-case basis in accordance with PDPA regulations.
- 6.3 Neither party shall transfer or otherwise allow the use of the personal data of the other Party, including its directors, employees, representatives, etc. unless expressly instructed or authorized by the other Party or have an appropriate legal ground that allows doing so. Both Parties shall comply with applicable laws and best and adequate practices relating to data privacy and data security.

7 Costs and Expenses:

- 7.1 Save as otherwise stated in this Agreement, each Party shall be liable for its costs and expenses in relation to the negotiation, preparation, execution, and implementation of this Agreement.
- 7.2 The Partner shall be solely responsible for covering its accommodation, transportation, catering, and any other related expenses for the duration of this Agreement. The Company shall not reimburse the Partner for any such expenses otherwise agreed upon in writing by the Company.
- 7.3 Any additional costs or expenses incurred by the Partner, including but not limited to promotional materials, marketing activities, and on-site operational costs, shall be the sole responsibility of the Partner unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the Company.

8 Representations and warranties

- 8.1 Each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that:
- (a) It is entitled to use and grant a right to use any of the IP (in the case of the Company) or it has obtained or procured all necessary applicable licensors or intellectual property rights holders (in the case of the Partner) which each Party also represents and warrants that any act of its IP in the Articles 2 and 3 shall not infringe any third party's intellectual property rights.
 - (b) It has the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement.
 - (c) It will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and standards in performing its obligations under this Agreement.
 - (d) There is no pending or threatened litigation or administrative action that would impact the Parties' ability to perform their obligations under this Agreement.
- 9.1 Further to the warranty above, the Partner also warrants to follow the prohibition when entering into the Field Premises as stated below:
- (a) It is strictly prohibited from accepting cash payments. All transactions must be conducted through approved payment methods by the Company.
 - (b) It will not provide or offer freebies or giveaways within the Field Premises. This includes free drinks, foods, swag, gifts, free samples, marketing materials, vouchers, discount codes, promotional items, branded merchandise, coupons, free trials, or any other items whether bearing the Partner's IP or not ("Freebies") from Partner's bartender, who must ring in all orders into the point of sale provided or regulated by the Company. Any intention to give away Freebies for specific activations must be communicated to and agreed upon in writing by the Company in advance. Unauthorized giveaways may result in penalties, including fines and termination of the Agreement.
 - (c) It will follow environmental guidelines which include the prohibition of all forms of single-use plastic (such as cups, utensils, and packaging), foam, or single-use cups (including paper cups) within the Field Premises. The Partner must adhere to the leave-no-trace principle, ensuring that the land is left as it was found. Additionally, the Partner must assist in waste sorting after the Event to contribute to the Company's goal of achieving zero landfill waste.

10. Term and Termination

- 10.1 This Agreement shall commence on August 18, 2025, and shall remain in effect until December 31, 2025, both inclusive.
- 10.2 If any of the following events occurs in respect of either of the Parties, the other Party may, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, terminate this Agreement with immediate effect:
- (a) If either Party enters into liquidation, is subject to seizure, provisional seizure, provisional disposition, disposition for nonpayment of taxes or other similar official disposition, if a petition for bankruptcy or other similar liquidation proceedings has been filed in respect of either Party, or if either Party becomes unable to make payments or becomes insolvent, or commences consultation with all of its creditors on the rescheduling of its debts;
 - (b) If a bill or check drawn or received by either Party is dishonored or either Party otherwise suspends payments; or
 - (c) If either Party is subject to disposition for cancellation of business permit or suspension of business by a supervisory agency, ceases its business operations, or significantly changes its business operations;
- 10.3 Either Party may immediately terminate this Agreement if the other Party has committed a breach under this Agreement and such breach is not remediable, or if remediable, is not remedied within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice of breach by the non-breaching Party.
- 10.4 The Company reserves the right, but not obligation, to terminate this Agreement immediately upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
- (a) The Partner breaches any provision of this Agreement which constitutes a material breach, including but not limited to breaches of Articles 1.1.1, 1.1.3, 3, 4, 5, 8, and 9.
 - (b) The Partner conducts any actions which imply, whether directly or indirectly, discrimination against personal characteristics of others, or exhibits contemptuous or derogatory attitudes based on race, ethnicity, skin color, nationality, religious beliefs, ideology, philosophy, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, genetic conditions, political views, including attitudes and behaviors such as supporting violence and political opinions advocating violence against others that potentially affects the brand image of the Partner or the Company.
- 10.5 Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, upon the termination of this Agreement, the Parties shall:
- (a) Cease all use of the IP of the other Party; and
 - (b) Promptly destroy all Confidential Information and copies of IP and Confidential Information of the other Party.
- 10.6 Upon the termination of this Agreement, the Company shall refund the Amount to Partner only in the occurrence of the following terms and conditions:
- (a) The Company shall refund the Amount to the Partner only when such termination takes place from the Company's breach. The refund will be paid to the Partner within sixty (60) days after the value has been agreed upon, the Amount to the Partner with a deduction on a pro-rata basis for the value of the Company's contributions according to Article 1.2 already provided to the Partner. For the avoidance of doubt, the value of the Company's contributions provided to the Partner shall be mutually agreed between the Parties.

- (b) The Company is not obliged to refund the Amount to the Partner provided that the Company has undertaken steps to create obligations to use the Amount for the benefit of the Partner.
- (c) In the event that the Partner breaches any provision of this Agreement, especially material breaches, the Company has no obligation to refund any paid fees. Notwithstanding, if the Company wishes to maintain the business relationship, it may, at its sole discretion, decide to provide a refund, and this clause can be revised accordingly.

11. Penalties and Indemnification

- 11.1 Any Amount that the Partner is obligated to pay to the Company under Article 1.1, if not paid within the specified period, the Partner agrees to pay a late payment penalty to the Company at the rate of 15% per annum of the overdue amount until full payment is made.
- 11.2 The Partner agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from any claims, damages, fines, or losses arising out of or related to the Partner's breach of its obligations under this Agreement, including any failure to comply with the provided terms and conditions by the Company.
- 11.3 The Partner acknowledges and agrees that breaching any prohibitions when entering into the Field Premises as provided in Articles 3.2, 3.3, 4.1 – 4.5, 5.1, and 9.2, as well as any other terms and conditions the Company may provide thereafter, may lead to the immediate cancellation of the Partner's rights to enter the Field Premises and forfeiture of Partner tickets. In such a case, there will be no refund of the Amount by the Company.
- 11.4 The scope of Company's liability in this Agreement shall be limited to compensation for direct and ordinary damages, and the Company shall not be liable for any special, punitive, indirect, consequential, incidental or extended damages or any similar damages whatsoever, including loss of profits, whether foreseeable or not, in connection with or arising out of this Agreement. In addition, if the Company is liable for compensating the damages, regardless the cause or legal ground of such damages, the compensation amount shall be limited not higher than the Amount as set forth in Article 1.1.
- 11.5 The Company shall have no liability towards or along with the Partner, its employee, and KOLs, or any third party, under any circumstances, for any damages, claims, fines, or losses incurred by the operation of the Partner in the Field Premises, due to the Partner's performance or non-performance, fault or negligence.

12. Force Majeure

- 12.1 For the purposes of the Agreement, “Force Majeure” means any cause beyond the Company’s control including, without limitation, an act of God, war, pandemic, infectious disease, insurrection, riot, civil disturbances, acts of terrorism, fire, explosion, flood, national event, national ceremony, theft of essential equipment, malicious damage, strike, lockout, weather, third party injunction, national defense requirements and/or acts or regulations of national or local governments, government’s orders. The Company will not be liable to the Partner for failure to perform any obligation under these terms and conditions to the extent that the failure is caused by Force Majeure.
- 12.2 The Partner agrees that the Company shall not be liable to the Partner for any indirect or consequential costs, claims, actual or alleged losses howsoever arising out of or in connection with the event and/or the obligations hereunder including, but not limited to, loss of profits, anticipated profits, savings, business or opportunity, or loss of publicity or loss of reputation, or opportunity to enhance reputation or loss of contract or other economic or consequential loss arising from the performance (or any failure to perform) this Agreement.
- 12.3 The Company shall not have any liability to the Partner whatsoever for loss or expenses incurred in connection with the force majeure, the Event, or any delay, postponement, or cancellation of the Event, including, without limitation, costs of any travel, accommodation or hospitality arrangements made relating to the Event or the cancellation of the Event.

13 Miscellaneous

- 13.1 Waiver of Rights: No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising of any rights, on the part of either Party as specified in this Agreement, any right or remedy under the applicable laws or this Agreement shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy prevent any further or other exercise or the exercise of any other right or remedy. Such waiver shall be deemed effective if such notice is made in writing and such waiver of non-compliance of this Agreement if there is any breach of this Agreement, it shall not be deemed that it is the waiver of non-compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement of the previous time.
- 13.2 Interest on Late Payments: Any outstanding sum by the Partner under this Agreement shall carry interest from (and excluding) the date on which it is payable until and including the date of the actual payment at the rate of 15% (Fifteen Percent) per year.
- 13.3 Severability: If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, in whole or in part, under any applicable law, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.
- 13.4 Assignment and Transfer: Neither Party is entitled to assign or transfer its rights and/or obligations (either in whole or in part) to any person unless prior written consent of the other Party.

- 13.5 Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws: Both Parties shall comply fully with any of applicable anti-corruption laws and regulations ("Anti-Corruption Laws"). The Partner and its employees, agents, or consultants shall not make any payment or give anything of value to any government or public official, any political party, and/or any private individual, any director, officer, or employee of the Company to influence his or its decision, to induce them to do or omit to do any action in violation of their lawful duty, or to gain any other advantage for the Partner in connection with the performance of this Agreement.
- 13.6 Entire Agreement: This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the matters discussed herein and supersedes all prior communications and agreements between the Parties with respect thereto. This Agreement herein constitutes the sole agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior agreements, correspondence, negotiations, representations, and expressions of intention relating to the subject matter hereof, whether in writing or oral between the Parties.
- 13.7 No Partnership or Joint Venture: Nothing in this Agreement and no action taken by the Parties under this Agreement will constitute or be deemed to constitute, the Parties a partnership, association, joint venture, or other co-operative entity.
- 13.8 Rights to Enter Similar Agreements: Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to restrict or prejudice the rights of the Partner to enter into a similar service agreement with third parties.
- 13.9 Retroactive Application: The provisions of this Agreement shall apply retroactively to any collaborations provided to either Party prior to the starting period as specified in Article 10.1 of this Agreement.
- 13.10 Notices: Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, all notices, requests, or approval issued or served under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be considered to have been given if hand-delivered to the other Party's representative, sent by registered post or email to the other Party at the address or email address for that Party specified below, or other address or email address as a Party may notify the other Party by not less than 7 (seven) days written notice of such change.
